

FIRST OFFICIAL PUBLIC NOTICE

FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

Proposed Base Flood Elevation Determination for ♦ (complete community name)

The Federal Emergency Management Agency solicits technical information or comments on the proposed Base (1-percent-annual-chance) Flood Elevations (BFEs) shown in the Preliminary Flood Insurance Study (FIS) and on the Preliminary Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM) for your community. These proposed BFEs are the basis for the floodplain management measures that your community is required to either adopt or show evidence of having in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). For a detailed listing of the proposed BFEs and information on the statutory period provided for appeals, please visit FEMA's website at <http://www.floodmaps.fema.gov/bfes/notices/BFENotice366.pdf>, or call the FEMA Map Assistance Center toll free at 1-877-FEMA MAP.

PUBLICATION DATES

December 14, 2004

FEMA publishes the first official public notice in the Southwest Village News, Humble Observer, and Southwest News

December 15, 2004

FEMA publishes the first official public notice in The Citizen, the Bayshore Sun, the West University Examiner and the Pearland Reporter News

December 16, 2004

FEMA publishes the first official public notice in The Sun-Memorial Spring Branch, Baytown Sun, Memorial Spring Branch, Houston Chronicle, Pasadena Citizens, The Sentinel, and the Fort Bend Sun

December 17, 2004

FEMA publishes the first official public notice in the Houston Business Journal

December 19, 2004

FEMA publishes the first official public notice in the Deer Park Broadcaster